

Allmonde International has propagated fruitful relationships with foreign exporters wanting to gain exposure to China since 1992 in many business fields especially on agribusiness such as cotton and grain etc.. Our goal is to be one of the most reliable market partner and trading company serving the agricultures ending users and suppliers all around world.

Our footprints:

The motocross and off-road helmet has clearly elongated chin and visor portions, a chin bar, and partially open face to give this link 1992 Allmonde International set up in 1993

Allmonde International authorized to be the first agent office of Australia New

1995

Allmonde International set up representative office for one of the largest Aus

1996

To extent the successful business model, Allmonde International represent

1999

As Australia New South Wales Grains Board merged by Graincorp operation

2007

Allmonde International introduce and bring the Indian cotton into China and

2012

Based on more than 20 years agribusiness experiences and grab the market

www.e-grains.com.cn